
About you

I am giving my contribution as:

Consumers and users

Interest of the participant

Select the geographical scope of interest (select all that apply)

Spain, Catalonia

General assessment of the sector

In general, current intercity bus routes respond adequately to your transportation needs

3

Intercity coach services are sufficiently connected with other passenger transport services (for example, rail, plane, city buses, subway...)

4

In general, intercity coach transport services are less attractive to consumers than other means of transport

0

Allowing several companies to operate their services in the same route would improve the attractiveness of coach transport compared to other means of transport

4

The provision of transport services in routes or areas without commercial interest for private companies should be financed by:

Intercity transport users, grouping profitable and unprofitable routes so that the cost of operation is shared among travellers

Other questions

Express your opinion on the following statements (where “0” means “strongly disagree” and “5” means “strongly agree”)

- Private vehicle: Twice a year or less
- Shared vehicle: Twice a year or less
- Bus or Coach: More than twice per week
- Train: More than twice per week
- Plane: Once or twice per month
- Ferry/maritime transport: DK/NO

Which coach operators do you usually travel with? (max. 1,000 characters)

Renfe, FGC

Rate the following aspects of your intercity coach journeys

- Service fare: Satisfied
- Departure frequencies: Satisfied
- Journey time and number of stops: Satisfied
- Quality, comfort and safety: Satisfied
- Quality/price ratio: Dissatisfied
- Overall service: Satisfied

In your opinion, how would the following aspects be affected if there were several companies operating their services on the same route?

- Service fare: Would improve
- Departure frequencies: Would improve
- Journey time and number of stops: Would improve
- Quality, comfort and safety: Would improve
- Quality/price ratio: Would improve
- Overall service: Would improve

You may provide additional comments to the questions above (max. 4,000 characters)

-

Submit your answer

Full name of the individual or represented institution (will be published together with the contribution)

-